

«The eleven wines in the tasting, the majority from the 2018 vintage, represent a selection of styles and appellations but each showcasing the team's finely-tuned winemaking methods giving purity of fruit flavour, subtle oak and fresh acidities. As well as having complexity and nuance, the wines succeed in offering typicity and terroir makers ... » Georgina Hindle

95

Charmes-Chambertin Grand Cru 2018

*A wine I wanted to taste
again and again.*

94

Clos de la Roche Grand Cru 2017

*It's expressive and concentrated but smooth and nuanced.
A wine to savour.*

94

Corton Grand Cru 2018

There is a wonderful depth of flavour but with absolute purity.

94

Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru 2018

Stellar stuff

93

Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru
Aux Murgers 2016

Really lovely stuff.

93

Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru
Aux Chaignots 2017

A delicious, easy drinking wine with everything in balance.

93

Morey-Saint-Denis 1er Cru Les Millandes 2018

It's so full but fresh too, extremely promising - a wine with a long life ahead.

93

Chassagne-Montrachet 1er Cru
Clos Saint-Jean 2018

Concentrated but also refreshing with vibrant acidity all the way through.

92

Nuits-Saint-Georges Le Village 2018

So much perfume and nuance here !

91

Septembre Bourgogne Pinot Noir
2018

Clean, precise and linear - this has great typicity.

91

Septembre Bourgogne Chardonnay 2018

An entry-level wine that 'over delivers', showcasing knowledge of Burgundy's terroir and the art of blending.

